

Improving the economic well-being of the residents & businesses of Fond du Lac County

Education in Fond du Lac County

Fond du Lac County prides itself on the quality of its educational structure. Wisconsin traditionally ranks at the top of ACT scores for the United States, and nearly 70% of Fond du Lac County schools ranked above the state average of 22.2 in 2010-2011.

Higher Education in Fond du Lac County

MARIAN UNIVERSITY

www.marianuniversity.edu

45 S. National Avenue, Fond du Lac

Enrollment: 2,881

Marian University of Fond du Lac is a Catholic applied liberal arts institution of higher learning sponsored by the Congregation of Sisters of St. Agnes offering undergraduate, graduate, and continuing education programs. As a community, it welcomes diverse spiritual traditions and is committed to the transformation of the individual and the world through lifelong learning. Marian University is committed to the education of the whole person, striving to nurture intellectual, spiritual, aesthetic, psychological, social, and physical dimensions. The University's personal concern for students serves as the foundation for academic and student life as well as professional experiences. University programs integrate professional preparation with a liberal arts foundation. The University embraces justice, compassion, and service to the local and global community.

MORAINÉ PARK TECHNICAL COLLEGE

www.morainepark.edu

235 National Avenue, Fond du Lac

Enrollment: 8,484 (over 80% are part-time students)

Moraine Park Technical College is one of 16 colleges in the Wisconsin Technical College System. Moraine Park offers the education and training that employers want. Students can choose from more than 100 associate degrees, apprenticeships, technical diplomas and certificates, with classes and labs taught by instructors with real-world experience. Traditional classroom, online and blended formats are available at the College's campuses in Beaver Dam, Fond du Lac and West Bend.

Improving the economic well-being of the residents & businesses of Fond du Lac County

Higher Education in Fond du Lac County, Page 2

RIPON COLLEGE

www.ripon.edu

300 Seward Street, Ripon

Enrollment: 1,065

Ripon College provides a nationally recognized, residential, student-centered liberal arts and sciences education leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree. Ripon's dedicated faculty and staff provide students with individually tailored learning, personalized support, strong graduate and professional preparation, and a life-long community of alumni. Founded in 1851, Ripon College is a four-year, private, residential, liberal arts and sciences college located in Ripon, Wisconsin, a community of 7,700. Situated 80 miles northwest of Milwaukee and minutes from the recreational offerings of the Green Lake resort area, the College is the focal point of a friendly "hometown" community that is home to several nationally known corporations.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN - FOND DU LAC

www.fdl.uwc.edu

400 University Drive, Fond du Lac

Enrollment: 747

The University of Wisconsin-Fond du Lac is a freshman/sophomore campus of the University of Wisconsin, one of the finest university systems in the world. UW-Fond du Lac offers courses that are the foundation for more than 250 majors. Academic offerings include day and evening credit courses, study skills workshops and a college success course. Five bachelor's degree completion programs from four UW Schools can be earned entirely on the UW-Fond du Lac campus. The park-like campus is composed of six buildings that surround a two-acre lake. A 60-acre Gottfried Arboretum is under development and will serve as an outdoor classroom and provide recreational opportunities.

Enrollment sources: IPEDS College Data Fall 2010; UW-Fond du Lac website Fall 2011 data